Vol. LXXIV . . . No. 24,897.

Full report on Page

First to Last-the Truth: News - Editorials - Advertisements

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1915.

Fake Shop Men Invade Fifth Av.

Kosofsky, of Hudson Bay and Other Fame, in Fine Shopping District-Skunk with Dog's Tail "Reduced."

By SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS.

ONSIDER Kosofsky. Were Kosofsky merely an individual he would not be worth consideration here. But he is much more than an individual. He is a type. Moreover he is a symptom, a symptom he represents the incursion into the uptown high class | Cole L. Blease, whose term will expire shop district of Bowery or super-Bowery methods. The Kosofsky specialty is the misappropriation of conspicuous and reputable trade names to its own terests from those of his brothers. All, however, are

Their stores are as follows:

The Hudson Bay Importing Company (the legend "Imp.." signifying "importing," being hardly visible in the form of a tiny cross-bar cutting the curve of the signboard), at 448 Fifth av., trading on the name of the ison's Bay Company of Canada, with which it has no connection but was abandoned.

hatsoever, and the Hudson Bay Company, Inc., at 753 Sixth av., also sding on the name of the Hudson's Bay Company; these two being under The store at 25 West 42d st., at present doing an alleged bankruptcy usiness under the name of Pierce & Co., but formerly and at various (A) Filene's, Inc., a forgery on the great Filene department store

(B) Brokow & Co., an imitation of the name of Brokaw Brothers of

(C) Boutellier & Co., a theft of the name and repute of Le Boutillier Brothers, formerly a well known department store of this city.

FIRM NAMES AS TRICK IN TRADE.

his peculiar genius for helping himself to other people's names, Kosofsky av., near 37th st., shortly after 1 o'clock on the stretch of the battle front nearun a stere in Boston, calling it the Hudson Bay Company, until he was To him belongs the distinction of being the first man connicted under the Massachusetts law against dishonest advertising. After them ction there was but one newspaper in Boston which continued to arry the advertisements of the convicted faker. That was Mr. William "Boston American." By a curious and illuminating coinci-Hearst paper failed to appreciate the news value of the conhich the other local papers gave extensive space and large beadlines, and it published nothing about the matter, so far as one can judge from a careful search of its files.

Aaron Kosofsky's 42d st. place reeks of fakery. When I first visited it the window at the 43d st. end bore this announcement:

EVERY YEAR BOUTELLIER & CO. HOLD AN ANNUAL SALE.

Yet "Boutellier & Co." had at this time been in existence less than three months. How many annual sales can be held in three months is a problem which I leave for Mr. Kosofsky to solve. The Boutellier sign has now disappeared and in the 42d st. window at the present writing is this

BANERUPTCY PROCEEDING PENDING. I AM IN CHARGE REPRESENTING CREDITORS.

No name is signed to this statement, but the signboard of Pierce & to stands above the door. What may be expected to happen to the pur-(c. stands above the door. What may be expected to happen to the pur-chaser of goods here is suggested by my own experience behind the luring sign. I was met by a suave and clever salesman—Kosofsky pays the Patrolman Catheno then went to sign. I was met by a suave and clever salesman-Kosofsky pays the highest wages to his clerks—who showed me various species of imitation Campo's aid and helped a dozen persons spossum dyed to look like fitch, molene counterfeiting mole, sealene, to Siberian hound, etc., all of which, however, he designated by their rightful names on being questioned. His one error was the assurance he gave me the fire to have been of incendiary orinames on being questioned. His one error was the assurance he gave he that a set of furs in which I was interested was genuine skunk, worth far that a set of furs in which I was interested was genuine skunk, worth far said, have occurred in the neighborhood during the last month. more than the price asked 101 lt. The build marked respectively "Price $32" and "Price $30." After some haggling I by Italians. lought the two for $20, which, the suave salesman assured me, was a remarkable bargain. So it was—for Kosofsky. The first interesting dis-owery I made about my purchase was that the tail of the "genuine skunk" was dog. Now, in a state of nature, a skunk with a dog's tail would be a are and precious animal. Converted into a neckpiece, however, it inspires sare and precious animal. Consider the bargain to an expert, who informed me that Man Fulfils Threat for Which both pieces are made up of the white strips cut out of the natural skunk's lack because they are inferior fur, pieced together and dyed. The set is a composite of scores of these cheap odds and ends.

"This set is very poorly made," reports the expert. "The finish is very

if You'll Just Construct a Little Rhyme.

Continued on page 6, column 4

ELLIOTT IN SPECIAL YOUR NATAL DAY. IN PERIL OF WRECK DOES IT SLIP AWAY?

Irain Dashing Toward Freight It's Easy to Recall at Any Time Blocking Road Is Flagged by Chance Observer.

South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 14.—It
South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 14.—It
South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 14.—It
Washington, Jan. 14.—Because so wery many Americans are so careless,
about reme bering their birthdays,
about reme bering their birthdays,
their age or the war of their birth, the New Haven Railroad, with Mr. Elhett and a party of friends on board, vice issued a bulletin to-day in which une within an ace of being wrecked it says; "Perhaps the easiest way to remem-A heavy freight train was standing ingle or rhyme on your birth year.

arily on the main track and partly on, For e siding at Branchville without hav-T received any orders not to do so. I railroad hand, living on the turn amediately above this point, saw the buildent's special coming down the rade from Danbury at forty or fifty biles as hour.

Be realized the situation in a second.

Be realized the situation in a second.

So his own authority he flagged the buildent's special. Even then, before depend on something near accurate evidence as to age. But on the point of the rhyming device the Public of the rhyming device the Public Health Service also suggests:

"Never mind what the rhyme is, just so you remember it, and if, after reaching the age of forty, you want to prove you are only twenty-three, why, simply change the rhyme, and perhaps people will believe the rhyme if they who had failed to give orders

HAPSBURG FAMILY SENDS GOLD ABROAD

eneva, Jan. 14. Swiss banks are treiving large sums of money and trip from members of the Hapsburg anily, members of the Austrian arisecracy and Viennese financiers as desoils, and also large orders to buy terican securities. Recently one turian archduke sold a large estate the Tyrol at virtually half its value

GREAT BEAR SPRING WATER—50c firm,

Ry The Tribune Association.

TRUST ESTATES GROW

From December, 1912, to the presen Kennedy, the philanthropist, who in 1907, have increased $2,363,335.

One large item of growth was the stock dividends paid by Standard Oil stocks since the oil trust's dissolution.

The trustees are William S, and Robert E. Tod, nephews, and Robert W, De Forest, friend of the testator. The estates now total $7.241,029, according to an accounting filed yesterday. The total estate was about $67.000,000. The trust beneficiaries are William S, Tod, Marion G, Tod, David A, Tod, Julia B, Wilson, Mabel K, Sinclair and Mary Anne Nimmo Smith.

BLEASE QUITS OFFICE

Resigns as South Carolina Governor Near Term's End.

on January 19, filed his resignation with the Secretary of State to-day.

The resignation, transmitted to th dubious purposes. There are several Kosofskys; three at least, one of whom has apparently divorced his interests from those of his brothers. All, however, are on a par in the matter of title-stealing.

Their stores are as follows:

Senate, was immediately accepted, and Lieutenant Governor Smith took the oath for the unexpired term.

No reason for Blease's action was given in his resignation, which contained only the words: "I hereby resign my office as Governor of South Carolina."

THREE DIE IN FIRE: TWO ARE CHILDREN

Trapped as Incendiary Blaze Imperils Many

Three persons, two of them children, its name from that river, died in a fire starting on the ground All of these latter are Aaron Kosofsky. In a former manifestation of floor of a tenement house at 497 Ninth frankly admits a success for the enemy this morning. The flames, sweeping up est the rapital, although it qualifier the stairways, trapped the trio on the the advantage as "partial." The Gerfifth floor before rescuers could reach mar attacks north of Soissons, in the M'KENNY, Catherine, aged three, BUCOLO, Tony, aged six, BROWN, J. J.

Brown, the police said, was passing Herushed in to aid in the rescue work. ishing with the two children on the Eighteen families are housed in the which building, and dozens of persons had down narrow escapes from death. Fred C. Walker, a steeplejack, of 409 West 37th st., awoke to see flames through his back window, and went out nto the roof of a brick extension on a vel with the flaming fifth floor.

He then tossed a clothesline to several persons grouped on an extension across a narrow shaft back of the burning building. In this manner the

PLEA FREED HIM

He Was Arrested-Kills Self -Woman May Die.

Montelair, N. J., Jan. 15.—After fir-ing three shots at his wife early this morning in an effort to kill her, James Hutchins, forty-live years old, killed himself instantly by firing a bullet into his brain. His wife is now in the Mountainside Hospital and may die. Some time ago Hutchins wrote to Some time ago Hutchins wrote to his wife, Anna, twenty-three years old, from his home in Pennsylvania that he was coming to shoot her. She lived with her widowed mother, Mrs. Ida F. Sorensen, who kept house for her sonin-law, Stanley Milton. He was arrested, but his wife's plea freed him. Shortly after midnight Hutchins called at the house and asked to see his wife. When she came to the door wife. When she came to the door in his hand, and the woman started to run through the house, screaming. in his hand, and the house, screaming, run through the house, screaming. Hutchins followed her. As she ran Hutchins fired three shots. One struck her in the chest over the heart, the second in the left side over the h and the third hit her in the head. and the third hit her in the head.

Hutchins and his wife had not lived together for a long time. It is claimed he was jealous of her. Not long ago Hutchins met his wife in the street in Newark and assaulted her. He warrested, but the case was dropped.

TEACHER READY It is a common occurrence, according to the Public Health reports, to find children, even of high school age, who cannot tell how old they are. It is pointed out that marriage licenses, inheritances and the right of franchis descend on something near accurate TO FIGHT BOARD

Mrs. Peixotto Will Bring Suit if Not Reinstated Monday, Her Lawyer Says.

Mrs. Bridget C. Peixotto, teacher-mother, will bring suit against the Board of Education unless her position is restored to her by Monday after-noon. Mrs. Peixotto's reinstatement was ordered by Dr. John H. Finley, State Superintendent of Education, on Mon-

MORGAN BRITAIN'S

FINANCIAL AGENT

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

London, Jan. 14. "The Daily Express" understands that the firm of Morgan, Grenfell & Co. are about to be appointed financial agents to the British government. The concern is the London branch of the New York bankling house of J. P. Morgan & Co. Ed.

appointed financial agents to the British government. The concern is the lish government. The content will not make application of the New York banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. Edward Charles Grenfell, of the London firm, is a director of the Bank of Englishment. The content will not make application of the board just talks and talks, "said tion of Crouy.

"The board just talks and talks," said to the concern is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the lish government is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the lish government is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the lish government is the lish government is the lish government. The concern is the lish government is the l

GERMAN RUSH DRIVES FRENCH ACROSS AISNE

Joffre's Lines, Cut Off by Flood from Reinforcements, Retreat.

ABANDON CANNON IN RETIRING MOVEMENT

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 14. Governor Now Massed on South Bank East of Soissons, 60 Miles from Paris.

> KAISER WATCHES HIS MEN ADVANCE

> Berlin Claims More than 4,000 Prisoners-French Gain Advantage Near Perthes.

> Paris, Jan. 14. The French line ortheast of Soissons, cut off from re nforcements through the destruction floods of several bridges across the before an overwhelming German force o the south bank of the river along a stretch of the swollen stream extend ng westward from Missy, a village stx miles east of Soissons. This is the first Germans across the Aisne at this point, the beginning of the battle which took > neighborhood of the village of Crouy.

The rapidity of the French retreat troops were obliged to abandon several pieces of artillery, after rendering afternoon in them useless, because a bridge toward which they were making had broken

The French lost prisoners, the numcontained in the Berlin official report, man saved two boys and a girl, hauling them in to his own landing.

Patrelman Nicholas Campo, of the 37th st. station, ran upstairs after the concerning the intimation in the Gerconcerning the intimation in the Ger-issued earlier in the day, the French were thus prevented from sending them side. reinforcements. This has been the esficult conditions.

French Abandon Cannon.

"To the north of Soissons there was determined fighting all day yesterday. The engagement was localized to a section of ground situated to the north of Crouy. We hold only the first slope of Continued on page 4, column 4.

Villagio Siola del Lirimani.....

TOWNS ENTIRELY DESTROYED. Celano. Antrosano. Cerchio. Avezzano. San Felino. Cullarmele. Bussi. Scurcola.

Lelli,

WOUNDS HIS WIFE, BRYAN SEEKS JOBS

ESTIMATED DEAD.

KNOWN DEAD (BODIES RECOVERED)

Siosamarso.

Find Salaries for Campaign Workers.

ISLAND NOW VICTIM

Sullivan Involves Secretary of State.

Jennings Bryan had an airing yesterday at the hearing before Senator-elect

James D. Phelan, of California, President Wilson's special commissioner who is investigating the charges against

A letter introduced in evidence from

In the opinion of Mr. Vick and other

Spanish language is necessary for employes. Let me know what is requisite, and you and he ought to be able to bring about such reforms as may be necessary there. You will find Sullivan island of the West Indies

Capestrello. Magliano. Marse. Cappodocia. Massadalbe, Castronove.

Capelle.

THEN KILLS SELF IN SANTO DOMINGO Edw. DeF. Smith Shoots Her and Himself.

The official report issued te-night LEFT HER HUSBAND WHEN RIVAL CAME

Man, Once Prosperous as Realty Hearing of Case Against J. M. Dealer, Dies Instantly-Woman Seriously Injured.

Reconciliation efforts a failure, Edoward the Aisne is indicated in a par- ward De Forest Smith, formerly a agraph of the report which says the prosperous real estate promoter, tried the apartments of her mother, at 123 West 128th st., and then with two bullets ended his own life. Mrs. Smith was taken to Harlem

James Mark Sullivan, Minister to Santo Hospital with a bullet in her breast and another in the thigh, inflicted as Mr. Bryan to Walker W. Vick, then she tried to escape from her infuriated newly appointed receiver general of husband. She demanded a private customs at Santo Domingo, showed the room, and as none was available she anxiety of the Secretary of State to was taken to the Po!yclinic Hospital, take care of all "deserving Democrats" where her condition was so serious last who helped in the campaign, even if he night that the physicians feared to had to find jobs for them in a faraway the elder child of the couple, was in the street in front of the house about t o'clock when his father came along. They kissed and the latter started upstairs. As the boy followed his father held the approaches to the Aisne bridges on the north side of the river.

Shot Wife Twice.

The French made gains in the region of Roye, just north of the sharp turn in the long battle line at Noyon. They captured some newly built trenches at this point.

Shot Wife Twice.

The rest of the story of the shooting is told by Mrs. Ellen Ryder, mother of Mrs. Smith. She heard her son-in-law enter the apartment. A few low-captured some newly built trenches at the spoken words followed which she could of overwhelming the trenches recently constructed by the Germans to the northeast of Fouquescourt, north of Roye (Department of the Somme).

"The attacks of the enemy in the region to the north of Soissons have been stopped.

"As said in the communication of this morning, the flooding of the river Aisne, which destroyed several of our bridges, which destroyed seve woman as Patrolman Ballard came You have had enough experience in from a copounding up the stairs. As Smith saw politics to know how valuable workers succession and pitched forward. He for all the deserving. I do not know was dead when Ballard reached his to what extent a knowledge of the

Mrs. Ryder said the couple had separated a year ago after a year of strife, together with the salary, and when apwhich culminated in her son-in-law pointments are likely to be made. introducing another woman in his French Abandon Lannon.

"We were obliged to abandon several says he ran one struck heart, the the heart head. not lived is claimed long ago have made a number of important prist street in He was fropped.

"To sum up, the success is a partial one for our adversaries, which will introducing allocating almotocling almot home and saying she had come to stay. a strong, courageous, reliable fellow.

which is of purely local character.

"On the rest of the front there is nothing to report."

with a revolver, demanding that she reRepublican regime that he should find to be turn to live with him, or at least negoturn to live with him, or at least negoturn to live with him, or at least negoturn to live with him, or at least negonothing to report."

went by an interior passage leading from the Vatican to Santa Marta, relief measures is Premier Salandra.

He has dispatched special trains carrytiate a settlement of installeged claims and interior passage leading from the Vatican to Santa Marta, relief measures is Premier Salandra.

Which were carefully closed, inc. physicians and pures to the control of the nothing to report."

The text of the earlier War Office on property he had deeded to her be-

The text of the earlier War Office communication follows:

The Belgium the firing of our artillers was interfered with by the fog; nevertheless the cannonading yesterday was very spirited in the vicinity of Nieuport and around Ypres. Certain detachments of Belgian troops blew will be point to the southeast of Stuyeekneskerke the buildings on a farm which were serving the enemy as a depot for his ammunition.

"Between the Lys and the Oise, in the region of Lens, our artillers were successful in dispersing a group of German pioneers on the outskirts of the hamlet of Angres, and it bombarded effectively the German trenches to the southeast of the chapel of Notre Dame de Lorette.

"To the north of Soissons there was determined field the control of the property and determined field the property and a great sorrow in the text of the southeast of the chapel of Notre Dame de Lorette.

"To the north of Soissons there was determined field the property and a section of the Linguistic of the property and a section of the property settlement as worth of the property, estimated as worth of the property of Smith property of Smith property of State.

"In elegium the firing of our artillers as accumulated by Smith property of State.

This property he had deeded to her before the break came. This property of Smith property of State.

"It is the first time that a Pope has left the Vatican since 1870.

Accuses Secretary of State.

"I always remembered the instructions given me by Elihu Root, Secretary of State, when I was appointed, that the funds of the receivership were a sacred government trust, and should be quarted and administered with the Roots and Italian Italia

Central Italy Vast Charnel House with 50,000 Dead and Injured Under Ruins of Devastated Cities

PRICE ONE CENT In City of New York, Newark, Jersey City and Hoboke ELSEWHERE TWO CENTS.

Die at Sora. STRICKEN DISTRICT AGAIN SHAKEN

Only Ten Per Cent of Avezzano Population of 12,000 Left Alive-One Thousand

Rome Again in Panic as Buildings Fall-King Victor in Charge of Relief Work-Twenty Towns Destroyed, Score More Damaged.

that has swept over Central and Southern Italy has not yet been made up, but all advices reaching Rome indicate the ever-growing extent of Towns with thousands of inhabitants have been overthrown, and from me of these come details which show an immense loss of life. The stimates ran to-night from 25,000 to 50,000 dead and injured, and yet there are several sections which undoubtedly felt the earthquake in full measure from which no estimates can be obtained.

ms are placed at 20,000. Only a small minority of the inhabitants of Avezzano, who numbered approximately 12,000, are left. Fifteen other owns and villages in that section have been laid waste. King Victor Emmanuel is on the scene at Avezzano and 30,000 soldiers have been dis-Reconciliation Refused, Even West Indies Raked to patched to the various centres where the force of the disturbance was While the greater part of the damage was done by the first earthquake, which occurred Wednesday morning at 7:55, there has been at after a night of public panic, to be thrown into a new state of terror. During the forenoon, there were several more shocks, severe enough to bring down buildings already damaged by the quake. Men, women and children, dishevelled and wan from fear and lack o barriers to anything like concerted relief measures. Rome awoke to-day, sleep, filled the streets and piazzas. Some seemed crazed, and cowered on the pavements or ran aimlessly back into buildings. Cries of "Terremoto!" "Terremoto!" (earthquake) acted like magic in the crowds, and the carabineers were helpless to restrain the disorder.

DISASTER MAY BE

Southern Sections Not Heard From-Mountain Falls Into Valley.

London, Jan. 15 .- "The Daily Telegraph" says it is clearly manifest that timated that not more than 800 of the witnesses, who charge Sullivan with the earthquake is more widespread in entire population escaped death. misconduct in office, their contention was well supported in this Bryan letcharacter than any that has visited ter that "petty politics" were first in-

Italy in modern times. troduced into Deminican affairs by the "There are ominous signs," says present national administration, and "The Daily Telegraph, for Sullivan's appointment was that he is not yet known, and that restored should provide berths for some of the communications will reveal fearful

POPE IN HOSPITAL "Sullivan will come down before long. First Time Since 1870 Head of pital to be set up.

Church Has Left the

a strong, courageous, reliable fellow.

The more I have seen of him the better satisfied I am that he will fit into the retary of State, Cardinal Gasparri, ion, sought to use these funds for political exploitation through Minister Sullivan."

Mr. Pulliam was relieved of his office to make way for Mr. Vick in the change of administrations. He had left mont towns and villages, but the dammont towns are the seven feet of snow fell on the Berning, Splugen and St. Gothard passes, while the snow is three feet of snow fell on the Berning, Splugen and St. Gothard passes, while the snow is three feet of snow fell on the Berning, Splugen and St. Gothard passes, while the snow is three feet of snow fell on the Berning, Splugen and St. Gothard passes, while the snow is three feet of snow fell on the Berning, Splugen and St. Gothard passes, while the snow is three feet deep in the Engadine. age cannot be learned, as the tele-graph wires are down. Slighter shocks were felt even in the Tyrolese Alps shocks

Rome. Jan. 14.—The toll of dead and injured in the great earthquake

In the ancient territory of Marsi, which includes Avezzano, the vic least one severe shock since then, which resulted in the collapse of many of the structures which escaped the first, and it is estimated that more than one hundred shocks, for the most part of a minor nature, occurred OF PETTY POLITICS during the twenty-four hours after the disaster. In the larger towns, where the loss of life, so far as is known, was comparatively small, the terror of the populace forms one of the greatest

Rossi Palace fell in, burying twent Inhorers who had taken refuge in the courtyard. Among the victims are EVEN GREATER sons of note in the district. Four hun dred and fifty bodies had been recovered by dusk to-night. Avezzano, it has been officially deter mined, no longer exists. The earthquake seized this town of 12,000 inhabitants and shook it until scarcely a building was left standing. The ruin is so complete that only 200 bodies have been recovered, though it is es-

Among the victims there are the sub-prefect and his family, all the members of his official household, all the members of the government and should provide berths for some of the "tail end" political henchmen who could not be accommodated elsewhere.

Communications will reveal fearful the Chamber of Deputies, and desolution and loss of life, especially in the southern sections between the communications will reveal fearful the Chamber of Deputies.

It is this heavy loss of life among the southern sections and local officials that presents the communications will reveal fearful the Chamber of Deputies. captured some newly built trenches at this point.

The fighting around the Beausejour farm in the region between Rheims and Verdun is still in progress. The French here blew up some of the German trenches.

Report Admits Retreat.

To-night's official report, describing the retreat across the Aisne, says:

"Last night our troops were successful in a sudden attack with the object of overwhelming the trenches recently constructed by the Germans to the successful in a sudden attack with the object of overwhelming the trenches recently constructed by the Germans to the successful in the apartment. A few low spoken words followed which she could by the general glower words followed which she could spoken words followed which she could be ready with practical trench successary Bryan wrote to Mr. Vick on Mr. Vick on Mr. Vick on Mr. Vick is sevidence of her sympathy as soon as evidence of her sympathy as soon

All ruight, a water state of protests served. For two hours after the shock the rivers ran as black as the waters ternational situation demanded his presence here, his majesty, after a "Near Salerno a section of a mountain called Montagnone, which was 3,000 feet long and 500 feet wide, split off and crashed into the valley below, blocking the River Arienna and leaving death and destruction in its wake." personally directed the removal of a CHEERS INJURED child's body from the debris of building. He also caused a field hos

All relief roads, however, lead to Rome. As the efforts to get some sort of order in the chaos of destruc-London, Jan., 15. A Rome dispatch tion go on, however, new reports of Threatened Her Before.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

"To sum up, the success is a partial have no influence on the operations as a whole. In fact, by reason of the obstacle presented by the Aisne and the dispositions which we have taken the enemy will be unable to utilize to the south of the river the success, which is of purely local character.

"On the rest of the front there is stimulated and that time he threatened her and a light into the about of take with us. On our side we have taken thave no important prisoned in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments.

The little girl was placed in a board-oners, not wounded, belonging to seven different regiments, visited the host of cardinal Gasparri, as have struggled through form the Cardinal Merry del Val and obstacle there and do what is necessary to Vatican digniarities, visited the host of cardinal Merry del Val and obstacle through form the vatican digniaries, visited the host of cardinal Merry del Val and obstacle through form the attenuate of the dispassion of seath on the digniaries, vi said that politics had never entered into the receiver's office until the advent of the Person Sullivar regime.

doors of which were carefully closed.
It is the first time that a Pope has accessible points, and has ordered the left the Vatican since 1870. AVALANCHES WRECK jured and homeless. Committees, in ALPINE FORESTS to organize them, are working in cooperation with the central committee

In every stricken section temporary women high in the social and official If It's Advertised in hospitals have been established, and

The Tribune It's Guaranteed. See Editorial Page, First Column